WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—There are strong indications in state department quarters today that Secretary of State Cordell Hull and his associates favor the convoys by the United States Navy of American merchant ships direct to belligerent ports.

If Congress removes the ban on the entry of American merchant vessels into belligerent ports, the indications are the American navy will soon be escorting to their destinations American ships that carry war supplies to the ports of Great Britain and her allies.

In his public statements and in his private remarks to associates and diplomats, Hull is making it plain that he feels the United States should now invoke the full rights of self defense to safeguard American merchant ships in their task of delivering vital war supplies to those

TOUCHES HIGH

James F. Gilliland, aged 51 years, of Ridge avenue, Union township, was electrocuted Wednesday afternoon about 3 o'clock when his hand came in contact with a switch charged with 4,600 volts of elec-

Gilliland was on a ladder painting the switch structure when his gloved hand came in contact with the charged switch. Harry Barber and Steve Serwatka, two other employees who were working on the ground in the enclosure, noticed his brush drop, and glancing up, saw smoke coming from the glove. They called Harry Jones, the foreman, who ran into the station and pulled the switch, turning off the current.

The three removed Gilliland's body from the ladder and called a doctor and the Ellwood City Rescue Squad, who worked over him until 6 o'clock.

Victory seemed almost at hand in the Y. W. C. A. Friday morning meeting—pledges have streamed in since the fourth!

Campaign heads reminded all that

Last Tuesday's report pushed up the drive total to $54,415.91, and,
by the time the last division accounting comes tomorrow, it should have climbed to $65,000 or over.

If it falls to, no one will be discouraged because the 11 divisions know the $65,000 will be in before many hours expire.

Increased contributions from homes larger gifts from plant workers and mounting returns from the stores, the professions and other branches of civic life pointed to an enthusiastic financial report to-

The community fund, which supports nine welfare and character-

The nations attempting to encir-

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Great Britain
today again flatly rejected the pos-

The government's attitude was reaffirmed by Foreign Secretary

in which Laborites called upon

"When the labor members had finished with their observations deteriorate through inactivity, Col.

will discuss nothing with Reichs-

PA NEW OBSERVES

Appropriate greeting cards in store windows will help convey New Castle's welcome tomorrow to the large host of visiting teachers.

Observing the number of automobiles that are parked all night on streets in various parts of the city, it appears as if there is a scarcity of garages.

A barometer that was falling this morning promises cloudy and warmer weather, followed by unsettled.

On the street car this morning a passenger, upon having some rainwater drop from the roof down the back of his neck, suggested that the roof should have a coat of paint.

Mother Nature is piling up a nice little surplus of moisture in the ground right now, and danger of fires during the coming hunting season, should be greatly minimized. While there has not been an extra amount of rainfall so far this month, only 3.11 inches having fallen, there have been sixteen days out of the 23, on which it has rained some.

Weather conditions today had a trend that indicated the October snow of a year ago, might be repeated in the near future. Just about a year ago, New Castle and western Pennsylvania had a heavy snowstorm.

The North street bridge has been decked out with six new freshly painted signs in bright yellow with black lettering, reading "No Parking" that can't possibly be ignored.
The heavy traffic over the bridge makes parking a hazard, but some drivers forget this fact, leaving their autos parked without lights for two and three hours, in the evening.

Resignation Of Mathews Was Forced

Forecasts Possible Entry Of Sen. Guffey Into Race For Governor

BASHORE MAY GET W.P.A. STATE POST

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
International News Service Staff Correspondent
HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—The forced resignation of Lieut.-Col. Philip Mathews as state W. P. A. administrator may forecast the entry of U. S. Sen. Joseph F. Guffey as a Democratic candidate for governor in 1942, in the opinion of informed political circles here today.

The junior senator from Pennsylvania was considered to have greatly strengthened his position politically in the state by the resignation of Mathews, whose dismissal he had sought for some time. In political circles it was taken for granted that Mathews was forced out by Guffey. The appointment of a Guffey man to the important post of state W. P. A. administrator, a move which is expected to follow, would give the Pittsburgh senator a chance to consolidate his strength for next year's important elections. The May primary campaign is slated to get underway soon. The underdog work has been in progress for some time.

Prominently Mentioned
Most prominently mentioned as the successor to Mathews is Ralph M. Bashore, Schuylkill county Democratic leader and former secretary of labor and industry in the administration of former Gov. George H. Earle. Others mentioned for the $8,000-a-year post are Guy Swope, of Harrisburg, former congressman and Puerto Rican governor, who now heads the U. S. bureau of insular possessions in the department of the interior, and George P. Mills, executive director of the Allegheny county board of public assistance.

Guffey has never publicly stated whether he will be a candidate for governor, but his secretary is known to have told a group of Democratic leaders that the senator would throw his hat in the ring when the opportune moment arrived. In any event, Mathews' dismissal was expected to aid the senator in picking his own candidate, in the event he decided not to run.

In some political quarters Mathews' resignation was looked upon as a defeat for David L. Lawrence, Democratic national committeeman and former state chairman, who has been at odds with Guffey ever since the 1938 party split. Sources close to Mathews said, however, that the ex-army colonel did not owe his appointment to Lawrence, but rather to the late Col. F. C. Harrington, former national W. P. A. commissioner, a classmate at West Point.

Mich.: Harry Lamb, Toledo, O.; Raymond Paul, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.; Fred King, Toledo, O.; Nelson Winnie, Toledo, O.; and William DeForest, Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

Police said the names of five of the seven rescued were: Roy Damar John Miller, Fred Keffer, Walter Visneau and George Bunker, all of Toledo.

Capt. Robert Turner, of the Detroit police harbormaster's division said it had been reported to him that the America's propeller fouled the anchor line of the Jones, twisting the tug on its side.

The freighter had been partially unloaded during the night to expedite the task of freeing her and the three tugs were starting to pull the bigger vessel toward deeper water when the accident occurred.

Those rescued were first taken to the local office of the towing company and then sent to Toledo by automobile.

that "advance troops in places battled their way to points within 60 kilometers (36 miles) of Moscow."

This sensational push on the central front was registered after German commanders sensed a weak spot on the southwestern sector of the arc-like Russian front defending the Red capital.

Immediately, German authorities said, Nazi "thunderbolts" smashed into the city's defense lines and opened a wide breach.

Latest advices from the front said this coup had upset the stability of the entire Russian central front.

Authorities said swirling winter snow storms had failed to halt the fighting before Moscow and that all through the night Sukkas pounded the vulnerable Russian sector without mercy, "shaking the ground like an earthquake with their heavy bombs."

Simultaneously, an encirclement battle raged east of Kalinin, where the northern arm of the German pincer coiling around Moscow was declared to be moving forward rapidly, deep into Russian-held territory.

On Southern Front
Equally important developments were said to be taking place on the southern front, where the Soviets were pictured in headlong retreat and losing vital industrial areas despite stubborn efforts during the last 48 hours to stem a German tidal wave that is rolling along a broad front toward the vital Donetz Basin.

Although hopelessly encircled with no chance of breaking out, the Soviets at Leningrad staged heavy counter-attacks last night which were repulsed with the most severe losses.

Big German guns went into action, literally blowing to bits a landing party that sought to cross the Neva at a point where it is only 900 feet wide.

German troops permitted the Russians to land and dig in, then massacred the entire landing party with withering fire.

HULL APPARENTLY FAVORS U. S. CONVOYS

nations which are actively engaged in resisting what the secretary regards as the Nazi movement of world conquest.

Seek Control of Seas
Hull feels that the unrestricted nature of the submarine warfare now being waged by Germany is conclusive evidence that the Nazis are seeking control of the high seas.

He believes this country should in its own self defense, resist that movement by every practical step possible.

In view of the fact German submarines are sinking without warning unarmed American merchant vessels in areas which even Germany has not proclaimed a blockade zone, Hull feels this country should now not only send supplies direct to belligerent ports, but protect the American ships that carry those supplies.

Right To Convey

For the first time since the outbreak of the war, the secretary of state has called attention to the fact that every nation has the right under international law to convey its shipping.

Conveying, Hull feels, is a matter of self defense. The right of self defense, he told the senate foreign relations committee, "must now be invoked."

"The key to that defense under present conditions," he said, "is to prevent Hitler from gaining control of the seas."

Hull regards the sinking of American ships in high seas as evidence that the Nazi movement of world conquest is definitely moving toward the American continent.

"The tide of conquest," he told the senate committee, "has moved in our direction."

Unless this country resists by whatever measures are necessary the efforts to sever the sea lanes which link the United States to the remaining free peoples, Hull said it will find "the full tide of the movement of world conquest beating at our gates."

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph.D.

TRAIN CHILD NOT TO BE WASTEFUL

For two good reasons we wish our children not to be wasteful: 1. That they and others might have more good things later. 2. That they might grow in good moral character and citizenship.

We begin well with the baby as we patiently spend time enough with him to train him to handle his playthings with care and to be careful with the furniture. As this child begins to use tools and materials to make things, we shall encourage and guide him not to be rough or wasteful with them. As he scribbles, draws, colors and later, prints and writes, we shall urge him to use the whole page and both sides of the paper. Without proper guidance the toy may, with all the paper he desires, make but a few marks on a sheet and get another.

Also at school, the child should learn to use materials economically. Whoever they are provided by his parents or the school. As one examines the wastebaskets of some elementary schools, one is appalled at the waste of materials by the children. I wish teachers were more concerned about this matter, especially when the materials have been bought out of public funds. As a rule, the child is more extravagant with them than of materials his parents buy for him. For good citizenship, it should be the other way around.

Care of Public Property

We parents can help. When the child brings home free school books let us show him how, or help him, to cover the books with paper or cloth. We should teach him to be very careful of library books, not to write in them, dog-ear them or use them with dirty hands. In every way we can, we want to educate our children to be very saving and careful of property belonging to other individuals or the public, always setting good examples ourselves.

Reading to the child from early childhood, and training him to be careful of the book is desirable. We need to see that children keep their school books, library books and supplies out of reach of a younger child who might destroy them, and at the same time train the younger child to let them alone.

Habits of Economy

We also should educate the child to be careful of his clothes. We should dress the tot while at play, in clothes suited to this purpose. When the youngster of school age comes home from Sunday school or a party he should change at once to play clothes.

Older children who have an allowance for clothes, and mend, launder and press their own clothes learn good habits of economy.

Parents also wish to teach thrift in the use of money, not buying for the tot nearly everything he wants, but giving him a definite small amount at regular intervals, and gradually educating him in the wise use of an allowance or of the money he might earn.

A selected list of books for parents on guiding the children happily in cooperation, self-reliance and responsibility may be had by writing me at 235 East 45th Street, New York City, enclosing a self-addressed envelope with a three-cent stamp.

Solving Parent Problems

Q. When should a baby begin to feed himself?

A. As soon as he is able. Most children can eat mashed food with a spoon at a year of age. Place a small helping of such food before him with a spoon beside and leave him alone. If he prefers to use his bare hands, very well. He might choose later, at your suggestion, to use a spoon. Cover him and the floor and have no concern about his spilling food. When he feeds himself he stops when he has as much as he wants; you probably will keep pushing it into him as long as he offers no resistance.

Just Folks

THE HANDKERCHIEF CARRIER

Not mine to question ancient lore
Or doubt the tales the Scriptures tell.

The ages that have gone before
All had their share of ebb and swell

And fad and fashion, mood and whim,
And much of habit still survives.

Old Solomon—I think of him—
'Tis said he had three hundred wives.

Now I've one wife, one daughter fair,
And subject to them both am I.

The wishes of that precious pair
I never venture to deny.

But there's one little trick they play
When I am near, to make it brief.

Always one comes to me to say:
"Just let me have your handkerchief."

I am the handy boy about
At dance, at dinner or at tea.

One or the other finds me out
And begs a handkerchief from me.

The daughter, like the mother sweet,
In many a solemn time of grief.

Comes up to me on eager feet
With: "Let me have your handkerchief."

Oh, how did Solomon contrive
To carry linen for them all?

Three hundred of them—all alive—
To get the snifflers and to wail!

He must have had a mighty stock
To keep so many noses prim.

And care for all that wifely folk
Who begged a handkerchief from him.

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 5:10. Sun rises tomorrow 6:20.

It's pretty good advice when a patient is told he will be all right to sleep in bed long enough. People always get well in bed and not when gadding around.

A prediction. Remember it. Wendell Wilkie will be the Democratic candidate for president the next election.

A million dollar bill and a five hundred thousand dollar bill were exhibited in Philadelphia. From the looks of things now a billion dollar bill will be small change some day.

It is worth being courteous to people, even at the risk of their thinking you have something to sell.

THE WRONG WINDOW

He had never struck such a stuffy hotel in his life. In vain did he try to sleep. It was useless. He had endeavored to open the windows before going to bed, but found them all sealed.

He tossed and turned. At last, in desperation, he got out of bed, wrapped a blanket round his hand and smashed a window. Then he breathed deeply, got back to bed and fell into a deep and refreshing sleep.

Next morning he had to pay $5 for smashing the wardrobe mirror.

We heard a man say he had to wait a long time for his wife so he could get her stockings on so the run would not show.

Seems thoughtless on the part of the woman in the movie theatre to keep her hat on and take her shoes off.

Son: "The doctor said to be careful and not get my feet wet; and I guess my face is just as good as my feet."

People who like nice plants in their gardens in the fall, should look for them now and see them in bloom and order them.

The farmers of today know all the ins and outs of the business, particularly the outs.

IS STILL BEST FRIEND

A man ran away with the wife of a neighbor, and the local clergyman called upon the deserted husband to sympathize with him. To his surprise the man seemed singularly cheerful considering the nature of his loss.

"It's too bad," said the clergyman. "I understand that the man who persuaded your wife to elope with him was your best friend."

The husband smiled. "Yes," he said. "He is!"

It's all right for the chap who owns the oldest husking peg to be proud, but the fellow who owns the one that has husked the most corn can also crow a bit. Husking pegs do wear out if used enough.

REASON FOR HIS MIRTH

"You should always be exceedingly careful about your conduct," said Johnny's mother, giving him a moral lecture. "I want you never to do anything which you would be ashamed to have the whole world to see you doing."

The youngster let out a whoop of delight and turned a handspring in his exuberance.

"What in the world is the matter with you? Are you crazy?" demanded his mother.

"No," was the answer. "I'm just glad 'cause you don't expect me to take baths any more."

Rita, the Top Hat Siren: "You're certainly bashful, my man. You drop your eyes when I gaze into them."

Country fellow: "Bashful, nothin' I'm lookin' at your legs!"

She: "I'm all made up to kiss. What are you waiting for?"

He: "For the paint to dry."

There are men who can tell others most anything, but they cannot tie a bow tie.

HIS EVIL ASSOCIATES

An elderly man appeared before the magistrate in a Texas town. "You're charged with being drunk and disorderly," said the magistrate.

"Have you anything to say?" "Man's inhumanity to make countless thousands mourn," began the prisoner, in a flight of oratory. "I am not so debased as Poe, so ungrateful as Keats, so intemperate as Burns, so timid as Tennyson, so vulgar as Shakespeare, so—"

"That'll do that'll do," interrupted the magistrate. "Seven days. And officer, take down that list of names he mentioned and round 'em up. They're as bad as he is."

Tomorrow—Expressing Your Frank Opinion

HAPPYGRAMS

by ERICH BRANDEIS

The National Dinking Association has sent a letter to its million members, inviting them to attend its annual Convention in New York on October 27.

While a world war of unprecedented fury is raging, the Convention's main subject is to decide the long-standing controversy whether a cruller can be classified as a doughnut or whether only dunkers who use the standard round article with a hole in the center may be considered members in good standing.

It is also expected that eminent historians will be present to announce once and for all the real inventor of the hole in the doughnut. As long as we retain our sense of humor we also retain our sense of balance.

AS an example of this, thirty-six citizens of Montgomery County, Ohio, attended a meeting to question the officials of that county regarding their method of handling tax collections and budget matters in general in that county. The county officials retaliated by looking up the tax status of all those present at the meeting. The officials would not say whether or not they intended to check upon the personal tax payments of the members of the group.

A Dayton, Ohio, paper comments upon this by saying: "Now the impression goes forth that to inquire into the county's management is a sort of less majestic for which 'reprisals' are due. To all appearances, let a citizen question the conduct of the officials whom he supports, and these officials will track him down, look up his tax record and make him pay, if possible."

Now under the Hitler regime, which we citizens of the United States abhor, any Nazi subject who questions or criticizes the Fuehrer will lose his head or go into a concentration camp. That is not supposed to happen here. Yet in this country if appearance are true, there is a distinct odor of that selfsame thing.

The Bureaus are multiplying. It is hard to recognize a particular Bureau and its alleged legal functions from the alphabetical letters used to designate the Bureau. A glossary or a dictionary, if you will, setting forth the various bureaus established in Washington for nebbing into the business of the citizens of the nation would need to be re-edited at least every month to contain them all. There are new ones being set up every little while and every one of them are bad. Officials of the bureaus do not assist the citizens of this country in any manner. They all tend to disorganize society. The dear president refers to their work as "social gains," but they are very far from it. They all tend to pauperize the nation. They all tend to discourage the youth of the nation from having any ambition to improve his lot in life and the officials of these bureaus are very jealous of criticism. I think they all awake nights figuring out how they can make life more miserable for their critics.

Smiths And Millers Still Hold Family Lead In New Castle

As a sort of 'idiot's delight' we have spent a lot of otherwise spare time counting names in the 1941 New Castle city directory. And while we were about it, caught ourselves making strange calculations from the succinct facts given therein.

Not including wives—though we can tell you that they increase the figures below by approximately one-third, in case you want to carry on calculations—the well-known name of Smith stands high—with 203 Miller is second—153.

Many Of These.
Davis, Jones, and Williams run a close third from the top of the list. And still excluding the neglected wives, there are more than a hundred Johnstons, Thompsons and Browns.

Ninety-nine each Campbell, and Thomas are ahead of Shaffer, Lewis, Russo, Clark, Anderson, and Moore, in the order given.

With only a point or two between them, from a count of 77 to 57 come Taylor, Young, Patterson, White, Kennedy, Wilson, Allen, Martin, Ross, Evans, Gibson, Johnston, Phillips and Richards.

More than 45 local inhabitants share the honor of the surnames Lombardo, Stewart, Book, Black, Emery, and Jenkins.

There are 43 Nelsons, 42 Flynn with the Alexanders and the Fishers tied with 41, and the Wynars, Georges, and Hamiltons tripling with 40 each. And that's as far as we went.

First individual listed in the directory is Rev. Fr. Joseph Abbate, assistant pastor of St. Vitus church. Stanley Zywar, an employee of the Shenango Pottery, is alphabetically the last man.

Lots Of Room
Given a population of 47,638, according to the 1940 census figures and 11 square miles (7035 acres) of area within the city limits, our population density allows 6411 square feet for every man, woman and child. Do we all get the same answer?

If everyone in town took a notion to take a turn in our 310 acres of public parks at the same time, there would be plenty of room. Three hundred square feet apiece of it. While if everyone went home at the same time, there would be 4.4 people under every roof.

There is a phone to every four people. With 97 miles of streets in the city, if we were all 6½ feet tall and laid end to end, our population would just reach around the streets that are paved. Question: How many miles are paved?

Laid out one at a time on a hospital bed, each one's share of the city hospitals' 275 bed capacity would be 24 hours in one about once every six months. We hope it doesn't come to this though.

Now that these cunning calculations have us dizzy, may we suggest the city directory for fascinating reading on a long winter evening, along with the encyclopedia and the garden catalogues.

'Chest Friends Must Tell Others,' Says Leader In Campaign

Duty To Make Good Work
Known, Dr. Henderson Declares Today

DR. E. F. HENDERSON

Dr. E. F. Henderson, prominent surgeon and civic leader, declared today that citizens should be proud to be contributors to the Community Chest.

He said in an interview: "It is hard to understand why any American citizen would not be proud and anxious to give financial and moral support to his own Community Chest. Every citizen directly or indirectly, stands to benefit from the work that the agencies are doing, and it isn't American sportsmanship to accept benefits without giving something in exchange. Yet, there undoubtedly are many people of New Castle who either give nothing to the Community Chest or give far less than they can reasonably afford."

"These people just don't fully realize what the Community Chest and its participating agencies are doing to promote the welfare of our citizens. It is part of the duty of those who do know the work of the agencies to tell others, and convey to them that feeling of pride that goes with giving cheerfully to any good purpose. We are approaching the end of the Chest campaign, and I am confident that its success is assured, but for the future, let those who know of the work of the agencies tell others so that they too, may help."

AHEPANS PLAN BOND DRIVE
The New Castle chapter of the Order of Ahepa last night voted to actively promote the sale of United States defense bonds among Greek-Americans here. The chapter move is in line with action taken by the order's recent Cincinnati national convention, and reported to them by Peter Brown, Ahepa's delegate to the sessions.

EARLY BRIDGE TYPE
Common soldiers built a "bean pole and cornstalk" bridge over Potomac creek during the Civil War. From 10 to 20 heavy trains crossed the fragile trestle daily.

The Great Game Of Politics

others. The support of these men is completely discounted by the obvious fact that they are in no position not to respond to a personal request from the President. There is no space here to recapitulate the arguments for and against this exceedingly dubious proposal. It is enough to say that except for the personal support of Mr. Roosevelt it would not get a handful of votes in either branch of Congress at this time. If it succeeds in getting through, it will be solely because Mr. Roosevelt has made it a personal matter.

ASIDE from the folly of forcing this huge expenditure at this time on a project the soundness of which is at least questionable, and which at best cannot be completed within four years, the trick of putting it into the rivers and harbors bill is particularly unworthy and reprehensible. It has opened wide the door for other individuals and interests with pet projects to do the same thing. Among those who have taken advantage of this are the backers of the discredited Florida ship canal, rejected by the Senate three years ago and supposedly dead. It not only has been revived but, along with the St. Lawrence plan, is also in the rivers and harbors bill to the tune of $197,000,000. And there are others. Even the old Passamaquoddy project, upon which so many millions were wasted, has reared its head again. It has not yet gotten into the bill, but its lobby is operating energetically and parts of Washington have blossomed again with the old Passamaquoddy "Harness the Tides" placards.

IN effect, what the President's legislative strategy in this business has done is to serve notice on Congress that if the St. Lawrence project is included in the bill it will run no risk of a veto, no matter what else is included therein. At once the special interests, led by the Florida ship canal people, rushed to get in under the wire. Many of them have. The situation shakes down to this: If the President wants to get his pet through, he has got to acquiesce in the Florida ship canal appropriation and a good many others. In other words, if they do not get theirs, he will not get his.

IT may be that, despite the strength derived from being in the omnibus bill, the St. Lawrence project will be eliminated in either House or Senate, because the opposition is strong, determined and has the right on its side. But if, under presidential pressure and with the old logrolling tactics, it goes through, an awful lot of other stuff will go through, and more than half a billion dollars will unnecessarily have been added to the already mountainous national expenditures in the year of the President's proclamation that every non-defense expenditure must be "pared to the bone." No more hollow words than those have been uttered by a public man in a long time. Ignoring all this, however, Mr. Roosevelt's aides are jubilant at the success of his strategy in getting the things he wants into the rivers and harbors bill. From their point of view, that was very smart; from another point of view, it is not really smart but just slick—and distinctly ignoble.

Arch Foster Conducts Test In Amateur Radio Hookup
Each Friday Evening

In order that a competent amateur radio hookup, both local and national will be ready in case of any emergency, weekly practice sessions are conducted by amateurs all over the country. Each Friday evening the amateurs come on the air at a designated time for test periods. Each amateur has a contact station in some other city, and the test messages received by each are immediately relayed to the next station in line.

In New Castle, Arch Foster, of R. D. 2, is the local "key man" in the large and efficient chain of stations. Foster, operating station W8RBI, is communications man in this district for the Pennsylvania Reserve Commission and an official of the American Radio Relay League.

According to Foster, it is possible that an amateur test station will be set up in the local armory sometime in the near future to handle tests of this nature and be ready for emergencies should they arise.

Foster operates one of the largest and finest equipped amateur radio stations in Western Pennsylvania and is a recognized authority in the field.

Swimming Classes Are Being Formed In School Pools

Classes Of Thirty Must Be Formed Before Pool
Can Be Used

Swimming classes are being organized by a group of interested persons, and under the plans, the George Washington junior high school pool will be used.

These classes are for adults, and a charge of $3.50 is made for 15 nights, those in charge state. Registration must be made by Saturday at the Administration Building, on East street. The first class will be October 29, at 7:15 p. m.

In connection with the movement the following bit of prose poetry has been submitted by one of the enthusiastic boosters:

Swimming
The water's fine, but you must sign, on the dotted line, by the 25th At Washington school, in a nice warm pool you may swim, if you wish, like a big lake fish. On Wednesday night, at 7:15, October 29, first class will begin $3.50, the charge for 15 times, and worth every cent of your 35 dimes. If your doctor says O. K. have him sign to that effect rush certificate and pay down to East street right away and get ready to expect a peck of fun. If you want only wimmin in one class of swimmin you may have it so. Mixed swimming, too, they will try to plan, so come join a class be you woman or man.

General Strike May Be Averted In Pittsburgh

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—Pittsburghers and national defense officials breathed easier today as the possibility arose that the AFL general strike called for next Monday may not actually take place.

Mayor Cornelius D. Scully is arranging to bring officials of the Duquesne Light Company, the AFL strike committee and federal and state labor mediators into a joint conference tomorrow morning.

There's to be no strike as long as mediation of the AFL-Building Trades Council-Duquesne Light Company construction dispute goes on, it was announced by George J. Walters, president of the AFL group.

Mayor Scully said he had been asked to mediate the dispute, in which the AFL trades charge the utility with entering the construction field. The mayor added he was sure "no hasty or precipitate action" would be taken "which would not serve the interests of the community as a whole."

Boston Port Will
Be Used As Base
For Soviet Aid

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The maritime commission today began the transfer of ships from the Pacific to the Atlantic preparatory to making Boston the main port of shipment of war supplies to Russia by way of Archangel.

Boston will be the principal port of departure for Russian war materials after Oct. 28, indicating that the Pacific and the Siberian port of Vladivostok has been abandoned except for oil shipments in favor of the shorter but much more risky route across the North Atlantic to Archangel.

Previously, the U. S. S. R. had announced it would keep its extreme northern White Sea port of Archangel open to shipping throughout the entire winter.

Daily Dozen

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

Hunters of wild life often wear red hats. Yet hunters, mistaken for game, are killed in hunting season. More than 900 were killed while hunting last season. This is a third of the 2,700 killed by firearm accidents. Forty-five per cent of gun-shot wounds by hunters are self-inflicted. They are caused by accidentally firing one's own gun. The hunter stumbles or falls and his gun goes off. He climbs through a fence dragging his loaded gun. Thirty-six per cent of hunting deaths are caused by a companion. He is nervous, excited or careless when seeing a deer or duck. Fourteen per cent are shot by hunters not of their own party. "There's a deer with a red hat on!"—bang, bang, bang.

French Sabotage Shows Increase

Anti-German Outbreaks Increase Despite Executions By Nazi Firing Squads

MANY OF FRENCH BEING ARRESTED

By MERRILL MUELLER International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Anti-German sabotage in occupied France is increasing today, despite Nazi threats and reprisals and an anticipated wave of terrorism in retaliation for the assassination of Lieut. Gen. Karl Holtz, German commander of Nantes.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Latest reports from Vichy stated the German officers of occupied France ordered immediate execution by firing squads of 50 French "hostages" at Nantes in reprisal for the slaying of Holtz. It was announced that another 50 hostages will be shot if two young men hunted as the assassins are not apprehended by midnight Thursday.

In addition, the Nazis levied a fine of approximately $450,000 on the population of Nantes. The money will be paid as a reward to any person or persons giving information leading to arrest of the killers.

Defiance Growing

Anti-German sabotage in occupied France is growing in defiance of German threats to shoot 10 hostages for every German murdered.

Already this campaign of "resistance" has cost 79 lives, according to an official tabulation—and this figure does not include the deaths which will result, or perhaps have already resulted, from the Holtz assassination.

It has led to arrest, imprisonment and concentration camps for 40,000 more persons who have fallen under Nazi suspicion.

But still the campaign goes on. Free French headquarters in London claim that while they have been able to confirm only 79 executions by the Germans in occupied France, the real figure "might easily be several hundreds."

These executions, they said, have been carried out as punishments for arson, murder and sabotage.

A spokesman explained:

"An example of how difficult it is to check up on German arrests and executions of our people is shown by a recent episode at Lille, where a miners' strike was broken when 20 men were shot."

"These 20 men are not included in the 79 confirmed executions because we do not know what percentage of the 20 were French or how many might have been Belgians."

"Also, more recent reports indicate another 15 men are 'missing.'"

The latest report to reach Free French headquarters is that the assassination of Holtz was preceded by a huge fire in Nantes which destroyed all the German army food supplies in that area.

The city was fined a reported 3,000,000 francs.

This report, incidentally, explained a blaze which had been a mystery to R.A.F. night fighters. It also explained the increased motor traffic on northern French roads, for the Germans ordered armored and scout cars to maintain nightly patrols of vital areas.

These cars are now presumably enforcing the new curfew, just as armored cars enforce the restrictions imposed upon Paris.

German Arrest Many

The Free French spokesman in London declared:

"Under general charges that they are terrorists or communists, the Germans are arresting all persons obviously resisting their regime in northern France."

"Naturally the number runs well into the thousands—about 40,000."

"Some of these spend a few nights in jail and then are 'cleansed'—only to be arrested again later."

"Others spend months in prison."

"Many disappear into German labor camps."

"Still others go to concentration camps. Only those 79 dead suffer no more."

"But the sabotage goes on strongly. The Arras railway station was partially destroyed by a mysterious explosion and two large electrical plants there were dynamited recently."

"At Juvix-Sur-Orge, south of Paris, the railway junction was beautifully fouled, according to our reports, and while the Germans were busy fixing it the railway lines in and around Paris continued to be wrecked."

"It is easy to wreck electric suburban railway lines and Frenchmen do not hesitate to do it."

"No less than 140 freight trains with German army supplies or products headed for Germany have been wrecked in the past two months and 1,800 cars of freight have been destroyed."

AROUND CITY HALL

Commissioner of Streets William G. Fleming reported that employees of the streets department are fixing streets for winter travel. He also asserted employees have been instructed to maintain a watch for persons who dump, throw or deposit any ashes, tin cans, glass, papers, refuse, garbage or waste material of any kind in alleys. "Anyone caught is liable to a fine of $100.00, or a 30 days sentence in jail," he said.

Two new garbage trucks are now operating here, one having been placed in service several months ago and the second a few days ago. The new type eliminates a high laborious lift by garbage men. The garbage of cans now is emptied into the rear part of the "refuse-getter" and by operation of a hydraulic lever the garbage is lifted up into the truck. One truck has an eight yards capacity and the other, 13 yards capacity.

City employees are ready for King Winter, coal bins in the numerous city buildings having been filled.

Cascade street paving may be completed today according to estimates of the city department of engineering. The contract for paving with a bituminous material was let to the Downard Rock Asphalt company for the stretch between Coolidge and Croton avenues. No curbs were set. The improved stretch will be 16 feet wide and extend approximately 1,600 feet.

Director of Parks Joseph D. Alexander has instructed park attaches to keep a sharp vigil for anyone who hunts in city parks. Signs warning against hunting have been placed. A stiff fine awaits a violator, he stated today.

Excavation is under way in Du Shane street between Junior High and Division street and the curb and stone has been placed in the street between Lutton and Junior High street. At first it was anticipated that inclement weather would cause a work cessation by the time construction got to Junior High street. This has not occurred. The street will be 32 feet wide, instead of 30. The school board will pay for the extra two feet width, according to city officials.

One hundred and thirty eight sidewalks have been constructed under the city WPA plan this year according to Harold Wood, in charge of the work for the city. The property-owners paid to the city $5,000 for the material used. Sidewalk construction in 1940 cost in material, $4,100. No more applications are being taken and construction will soon cease for this year, it was reported.

Senatus Romanus Initiates Members

Ceremonies Occur At Senior High School On Wednesday Evening

Roman senators in togas more or less artistically draped, last night pledged allegiance to the flag of the United States of America at the local senior high school.

The language of that pledge was the language of the ancient Romans of 2,000 years ago and the wearers of the togas were boys and girls from the Latin classes of our New Castle public school system. The occasion was the initiation of the new members of Senatus Romanus, the honorary club of the senior high school's Latin department.

Membership in the Latin club is based on excellence in Latin. There are three groups of members. Regular members qualify for membership by attaining highest rank in the "honors" examinations for their particular year of Latin study. "Socii" are Vergil students with honor ranking who just missed eligibility through the "honors" examinations of the preceding year. "Conscripti" are other Latin students, usually from the Cicero classes, who because of honor ranking are invited to become members. The number of "conscripti" members must never be more than 10 per cent of the club enrollment.

The following students were initiated: Alfred Apicelli, Mary Barella, Aaron Cohen, Patricia Hogan, Patricia Keadel, Joann Myers, Mary Ruth Ritty, Dorothy Smith, Rose Cimino, Eloise Hahn, Evelyn Jones (socii).

During the business session of the evening, three conscripti members for the year were elected. They are: Gene McIlvaine, Edice Norris and Roy Scarazzo.

The officers of the club elected at the close of last year are: Consul prima, Anita Sacco; consul secundus, Fred Rantz; scriba, Guy Gribble; quaestor, Larry Attisano.

Other members of this flourishing club are: Kathleen Angellio, Robert Calvin, Margaret Clement, Robert Durning, Dorothy Gibson, Margaret Hogan, Edward Joseph, Robert Lipp, Marjorie Markles, Kathryn Ringer, Betty Rowland, Peg Rowland, Suzanne Shannon, Josephine Skanesky, Roberta Street, Harry Thompson, Joe Vogan, Mary Lou Womer (socii) and Miriam Thompson (conscripti).

The initiation committee was composed of Roberta Street, Edward Joseph and Josephine Skanesky. The refreshment committee included Margaret Hogan, Miriam Thomas and Robert Durning.

REMOVING JEWS FROM BERLIN NOW

BERLIN, Oct. 23.—Removal of large numbers of Jews from their Berlin apartments was described as a "war necessity measure" by German authorities today.

Officials said the Jews were being "placed in useful work projects."

Points to which the Jews are being transferred, how many are being sent from Berlin or how they are selected for removal were not revealed.

Space between heavenly bodies is perpetual night. Light is only apparent when reflected, such as by plants.

It was not until September, 1918, that William and Mary college, Williamstown, Va., admitted women students on equal terms with men.

Leave 'Good Blood,' Kiwanians Told

Dr. Ferguson, At Luncheon, Calls Spiritual Heritage Greatest

To remember that a spiritual heritage is far more precious than a material heritage is the challenge before every man who wants to leave all he can to his children, Dr. D. L. Ferguson, pastor of Highland U. P. church, told members of the Kiwanis club at their luncheon yesterday.

The minister said "good, pure blood" is by far the most precious thing a man can leave them. He pointed to the dividends from clean personal living.

Dr. Ferguson, introduced by Robert L. Wallace, a Kiwanian and member of the Highland congregation, discussed "What Will You Leave Your Children?"

President Lyle C. Hughes, presiding at the noon meeting in The Castleton, said a Ladies' Night party is scheduled for November 12.

Hillsville Roll Call Workers Meet

Plans For Coming Campaign Discussed At Meeting In Miller Home

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, chairman of the Red Cross Roll Call in Hillsville, called a meeting of her workers Monday evening at 8 p. m. at her home. An enthusiastic meeting was held with 15 persons attending. Roll call plans were discussed.

Supplies will be issued at a later date and the volunteer workers will conduct the roll call beginning November 11th and hope to have a 100 per cent enrollment in Hillsville.

Miss Bodenstein attended the meeting and reported on the work of the local Chapter.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Miller served light refreshments.

Civic Responsibility Regarding Beverage Alcohol

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text

Three members of a temperance society.

"Righteousness exalteth a nation; But sin is a reproach to any people."—Prov. 14:34.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Oct. 26 is Deut. 5:32, 33; 11:26-28; Isa. 28:1-6; Hab. 2:12; The Golden Text being Prov. 14:34. "Righteousness exalteth a nation; But sin is a reproach to any people.")

This is our fourth and last lesson of the year on the evils of drink. Our Bible references are all regarding the happiness that comes from righteous living, and the misery that results from evil ways.

Understand, we may not always be prosperous, in the worldly sense of the term, when we do right, but at least we shall be happy, because no matter what amount of money we have, and in spite of owning lovely homes, large, expensive cars, jewels, treasures of all sorts, we never can really be happy when we are wicked or even self-indulgent.

"Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse:

"A blessing if ye obey the commandments of the Lord your God which I command you this day."

"And a curse if ye will not obey the commandments of the Lord your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day to go after other gods, which ye have not known."

"Other gods" might understandably be over-indulgence in drink or food, and other things that are not good for us either physically or mentally, and which would therefore act as a curse upon us. Inevitable suffering follows such courses. Isaiah, that prince of prophetic writers, calls attention to the Samaritans, whose intemperate living was soon to bring their city to destruction.

"Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim," he says, "whose glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that overcame with wine."

Samaria lay on a beautiful, circular hill which "commanded the country about in a regal way. The situation was commanding, the hill was cultivated up to the top in terraces, the neighborhood fertile and splendid."

The beauty and fertility of this place surely was like a "fading flower" as the prophet said, soon to pass away.

The one who seems to have been chosen to bring about the overthrow of the kingdom of Israel, of which Samaria was the capital, was the king of Assyria, Shalmaneser, who began the siege, and his successor Sargon, who completed it.

"In that day will Jehovah of hosts be for a crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of His people," which was Judah whose fate was a contrast to Samaria's overthrow, and which was saved by the prayers of Hezekiah and Isaiah and the faithful in Zion.

"And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle at the gate."

"Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!" writes the prophet Habakkuk. Nothing that is founded upon wrong and suffering to others can endure in the end, no matter how successful it may seem for a time. We must believe that if we study all history, from Bible times up to the present.

"Righteousness exalteth a nation (as well as individuals); but sin is a reproach to any people," truly, as the proverb says.

Discuss Roll Call In Wilmington Twp.

Meeting Of Workers Takes Place In Ludwick Home Tuesday

On Tuesday afternoon in the home of Miss Dora and Nettie Ludwick and their sister, Mrs. Floyd Hoon; Mrs. J. H. Johnston, Mrs. Clarence McFarland and Mrs. N. E. Sampson, chairmen of the New Wilmington township Roll Call, conducted a very enthusiastic meeting and Roll Call plans were enthusiastically discussed.

Supplies will be issued at a later date and it is hoped that New Wilmington township will have a 100 per cent enrollment.

Miss Thyra Fulton attended the meeting and discussed the work of the local chapter.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses served a delightful tea.

Probably the earliest elections held in America were those of delegates to the Virginia assembly in 1619. However, the earliest date specified is that of the election of John Winthrop as governor of Massachusetts, May 18, 1631.

Former Pastor's Work Recognized

Dr. Charles B. Wingerd Given Recognition In Paper At Stuart, Florida

The work of Dr. Charles B. Wingerd, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Stuart, Fla., and formerly pastor of Central Christian church in this city, has been recognized in that community, the following having appeared in the Stuart newspaper:

"One of the scholars in our community, Dr. Charles B. Wingerd gave a most interesting talk Wednesday before the Rotary club on the subject of better international understandings and the necessity of a conscious effort to rebuild good will and try to help civilization which has lots its way" and needs to get back on the right track. It takes a broad-mindedness nowadays to help get back that peace and harmony we all need so badly, and we do not have to go far from home to find that need. Do you recall the sign in London: 'Let's be kind to each other. We are all having such a dreadfully hard time.'"

A copy was sent to Miss Laura Stevenson, this city, by the clerk of the session at Dr. Wingerd's church in Stuart, Henry P. Stevenson, who is a full cousin of Joe Stevenson, West Newton, who came here 25 years ago to sell The News.

Democracy never learns. When the crisis came in 1861, there were no guns for the soldiers except Revolutionary War muskets.

RENEW SALVAGE WORK

(International News Service)

BOSTON. — Increased value of rubber as a result of the World War II has resulted in a resumption of salvage work on the sunken British freighter, City of Salisbury, wrecked in April, 1938, when it struck a rock near Graves Light, at the entrance to Boston harbor. Divers hope to recover stores of rubber, jute and burlap, part of the cargo of the City of Salisbury on its last trip from the Far East.

Farm Income Is More This Year

Defense Program Is Held Responsible For Increase In Income

PRODUCTION COSTS ARE ALSO GREATER

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, Oct. 23.—The national defense program and a general resurgence of economic conditions raised the cash income of Pennsylvania farmers to $27,687,000 during July, an increase of $5,697,000 over the corresponding month a year ago.

Of this total, according to the department of agriculture, $6,847,000 was received as income from crops and benefits from livestock and livestock products totaled $20,840,000. Although the total increase represents a rise of 26 per cent, costs of production and of the things the farmer must buy have also increased, it was said.

Encouraging for the state's farmers was the report that weather conditions would seriously hamper the heavy hay production this fall. The estimated production of red clover seed for 1941 in this state is placed at 34,000 bushels compared to 31,000 bushels last year, although the national production is about 22 per cent below 1940 totals.

The Danish cabbage harvest, now underway, also was reported very good despite the prolonged drought. Northwestern and southwestern Pennsylvania farmers reaped excellent yields with heads running from small to medium.

Ominous News From Europe

Epidemic Disease Outbreak
In Spain Is Warning Of
Worse To Come

LONG EXPECTED AS RESULT OF WAR

By CAPT. JOHN H. CRAIGIE
U. S. Marine Corps, Retired (Written Especially for International News Service)

Most ominous news for unhappy humanity is that contained in dispatches from London, chronicling the appearance of epidemic disease, dread fourth horseman of war's ghastly apocalypse, in the cities and fields of ravaged Europe.

This was inevitable from the day large-scale fighting began. It is always so in war. First come the three horsemen of slaughter, fire and famine. These are like the lead-off hitters in a baseball game of death. They soften up the populations and continents for what is to follow. Pestilence, the real clean-up hitter of the team, smashes the home runs that send mankind reeling to the showers.

Has Been Expected
Students of war have been expecting the appearance of mass-disease in Europe for some time. Conditions for its advent there are ripe and getting ripe fast. Ominous tidings have been current in informed circles, occasionally reflected in brief paragraphs in the news, of alarming health conditions in the Balkans. Similar reports come from the concentration camps in southern France and Spain where prisoners and refugees from Spain's civil war are herded.

Tuesday's warning was much more definite and portentously specific. It was delivered to the British House of Commons by Dr. Leslie Guest, distinguished physician and former aide to the ministry of health.

One Of Worst
According to Dr. Guest, an epidemic of typhus that is "one of the greatest known in European history" has appeared in Spain, where it is raging with unparalleled virulence. "There is also typhus fever in Russia," continued Guest, "and epidemics of malaria and other illnesses in other parts of the world." Concluding his testimony, the expert said that at the end of the present war the world will be faced with the greatest health problem in history.

Unfortunately, there can be little doubt of the correctness of his estimate. Since war began, the diseases that follow battle have always taken infinitely greater toll in death and disability than the weapons of conquering armies. War starves, weakens and destroys the resistance of men, women and children, leaving them ready victims for the first germ that comes their way.

Soldiers and civilians alike succumb to the virulence of disease. Modern research indicates that it was malaria, not the bravery of Parthian armies, that blocked Rome's thrust through what are now Turkey and Syria towards the wealth of India.

Delegations To Share Parade

Many Organizations To Be Invited To March In Hallowe'en Parade

DETAILS ARE BEING
ARRANGED NOW

Members of the American Legion and the two Veterans of Foreign Wars posts, the Elks, the Moose and the Eagles will be invited to march in a body in New Castle's gay Hallowe'en Night parade.

Arrangements for the October 31 mummers' celebration, expected to be one of the city's biggest and best, were furthered last night when parade heads conferred in The Castle.

North Mercer street, between North and Falls streets, will be roped off for a grand street mardis gras following the parade, it was announced. Details of this phase of the merrymaking are being developed.

Invitations have gone out to four Ellwood City bands to come here to compete for prizes along with the group of bands New Castle will provide. The parade will have four divisions.

It was stated that both cash and merchandise prizes will be offered. The route of the parade is expected to cover one of the longest courses of any previous Hallowe'en observance.

Presiding at last night's parade committee meeting was J. Hartzel Huston, the group's chairman. Present also were Igor V. Davis, general chairman of the celebration and Edward Haines, Davis' chief aide.

Councilman D. O. Davies, chairman of the judges committee, has called a meeting of his committee for next Monday night.

MAN WOUNDED;

WOMAN IS HELD

City police today had in custody on an open charge of "suspicion" a colored woman suspected of having wielded a knife last night that sent Nelson Buckner, colored, 303 1/2 South Jefferson street to the Jameson Memorial hospital, where seven stitches were required to close a wound in his leg.

When police were summoned Buckner claimed he had been cut by the woman. However, today he changed his story. Mayor Charles B. Mayne ordered her held pending an investigation by city detectives.

Gas Shortage Over Says Ickes

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Petroleum Coordinator Ickes reported today that the oil shortage situation on the east coast has been virtually eliminated and that storage stocks are now less than 500,000 barrels below inventories a year ago.

Ickes reported that almost all of an original nine million barrels storage deficit on the east coast had been made up by intensified use of all transportation facilities and the gasoline curtailment program.

He gave no hint, however, that the night-time curfew on the sale of gasoline would be lifted.

A report published today by the coordinator's office shows that the supply of gasoline on the east coast now actually exceeds the supply a year ago, while stocks of light heating oils are almost 2,000,000 barrels greater now than at the same time in 1940.

In the last week, stocks of gasoline, light heating oils and heavy fuel oils on the east coast have increased 2,615,000 barrels. During the week however, stocks of crude oil dropped 216,000 barrels.

"These figures speak for themselves," Ickes said. "They show that our program has been effective and the bad outlook of the summer has been overcome."

Stodolski Held

Under $1,000 Bond

Faces Charges Of Attempting To Evade Draft—May Be Inducted

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 23.—Joseph Stodolski, of New Castle, was held under $1,000 bond today by the U. S. Marshall on charges of attempting to evade the draft.

Stodolski, federal agents charged, failed to notify his draft board when he left New Castle to find employment elsewhere. He was arrested Tuesday when he returned to the draft board to tell them of his absence.

Federal agents said they were going to take him to induction headquarters at Pittsburgh later today for an examination by army medical officers, preliminary to possible induction. A group of New Castle youths will be present in Pittsburgh to undergo their physical examinations today for possible entrance into the army, the federal authorities said, adding that Stodolski may be placed among them.

There were indications that if Stodolski allows himself to be inducted, the charges preferred against him will be dropped.

Plan Hybrid Corn Demonstrations

Three Demonstrations Arranged For Lawrence County
by Farms On Friday

It was announced today by the Lawrence County Agricultural Extension Association, that more hybrid corn demonstrations will take place on Friday on Lawrence county farms.

These are as follows: 10 a. m. farm of W. A. Scott, Little Beaver township; 1 p. m., farm of J. F. Young, Wayne township, and 3 p. m., farm of W. F. McCracken, Scott township.

E. J. Walter, extension agronomist of Penn State college, will be present to conduct these demonstrations, where hybrid corn has been planted on the above farms. The corn will be harvested and weighed and compared with other varieties in connection with which a discussion of the merits of the hybrid corn will be given.

SPUR EFFORT TO SEND U. S. SHIPS INTO WAR ZONE

ed the belligerent spirit of many administration supporters by declaring that "we will sink every submarine on the seas that is preying on our commerce—we will stop it."

The Republican proposal for outright repeal of the neutrality act was rejected by Democratic leaders with Sen. Connally (D) Texas chairman of the foreign relations committee, declaring that if the armed ship bill is broadened it will not be by complete repeal.

Poll Status

A poll of the committee showed: For repeal of combat zone provisions—(11)—Sens. Connally, Wagner, N. Y.; Thomas, Utah; Murray Mont.; Pepper, Fla.; Green, R. I.; Barkley, Ky.; Guffey, Pa.; Glass Va.; Lee, Okla.; Tunnell, Del., all Democrats.

Against—(10)—Sens. Johnson Calif.; Capper, Kan.; Vandenberg Mich.; Shipstead, Minn.; Nye, N. D. all Republicans; Clark, Mo.; Gillette, Ia.; Reynolds, N. C.; Van Nuys, Ind., Democrats, and La Follette, Wis., Progressive.

For complete repeal instead of revision—White (R) Maine; non-committal, George (D) Ga.

Seek To Persuade White

Leaders in the fight for drastic revision sought to persuade White to abandon insistence on the proposal for complete repeal, and agree to modification. This would assure a clear majority. George, who returned to Washington yesterday said that he had not made up his mind.

Administration leaders also considered the question of whether launching a battle to wipe out the combat zone provisions would delay arming of merchant ships for several weeks.

Both President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Hull spurred congress to arm the ships and allow them to enter combat zones. The president's desire for this action was made clear in a White House statement while Hull declared sinking of the American freighter Lehigh "is another reason" he is urging repeal of the two provisions.

With Sen. Bailey, chairman of the commerce committee, declaring the government will assure freedom of the seas, some bitter opponents of war joined in denouncing the Lehigh sinking off the African coast, while traveling without cargo. Rescue of all seamen appeared to lessen the tension.

"One of the objectives of this war, so far as we are concerned, is to establish a reign of law on the high seas," said Bailey. "We will stop lawlessness by whatever means is necessary, and when the war is over we will have a reign of law on the high seas."

NEW CRIMEAN DRIVE IS BEGUN BY NAZI TROOPS

German units opened up furious onslaughts but were "beaten off with heavy losses."

"The Germans repeatedly tried to force a crossing of the river 'O', the agency added.

The regular noon high command communiqué stated:
"Last night Soviet troops fought the enemy along the whole front."

On Immense Scale

Fighting on the approaches to the Crimean peninsula was reported to be raging on an immense scale. Russian accounts said these new battles brought swift death to 5,000 Germans and Rumanians in their opening stages.

Russian advances admitted the Red army defenders of the Crimea had been forced to fall back.

Moscow radio broadcasts heard in London revealed the great new German assault against the Crimea and reported tremendous air bombings and savage land engagements in progress as the main fighting shifted south.

At the same time, dispatches from Kuibyshev, the new seat of the government, said one of the "greatest battles of history" is raging north of Orel on the front south of Moscow.

Successfully Resist

According to these reports the Russians are successfully resisting the third and fourth Nazi tank divisions, masses of German infantry, artillery bombardments and aerial assaults.

The Moscow radio said 5,000 Nazi and Rumanian soldiers were slain in "one phase of the Crimea offensive."

The Russian announcer added 100 German planes had been wrecked in aerial combats and successful Red air force bombing attacks on enemy airbases.

All reports indicated the new clash was roaring with all the might mechanized fury that has characterized previous gigantic battles in the Ukraine and on the fronts facing Moscow and Leningrad.

Crimean Battle Resumed

According to the Moscow broadcast the tremendous Crimean battles began again when the Germans launched a fierce new offensive—weeks after the original Nazi air, land and sea assault on the peninsula.

In the intervening period, with attention concentrated on the Moscow front, steady fighting has continued along the Perekop isthmus with the Germans evidently unable to make great headway.

Today, however, the legions of Adolf Hitler were declared to have opened up a new blitz drive of tremendous proportions in their effort to seize the Crimea and strengthen their hold on the Black Sea.

IMPRESSIVE SAFETY RECORD

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG—Despite sharply increased operations due to defense work, State officials reported that Pennsylvania factories are compiling an impressive safety record. A survey showed an increase of only 10 per cent, in industrial accidents after an increase of approximately 20 per cent, in manpower and the number of hours worked.

The ancient Egyptians evidently used slang, too. They called their beer "booza."

Mayor Suggests Company Employ Mat When Dynamiting Here

City council met today in the city hall and matters of minor importance were discussed. The items ranged from improvement liens to dynamiting.

The A. Dietrich company agreed, according to City Solicitor Robert McKinney White to obey all regulations asked by the city to protect property and persons against damage and injury. They are removing scrap from the old steel mill site.

Mayor Charles B. Mayne suggested that the company use a mat or cover to prevent the hurling of missiles into the air. Solicitor White expressed the opinion the company would agree to this.

During the session it was also agreed to purchase a concrete mixer. The city has been renting the machine and executed a deal where-by it was purchased for $450.

323RD ARTILLERY

MEETS SATURDAY

Veterans of the 323rd Light Field Artillery, A. E. F., which numbered among its membership, a number of Lawrence county men, will have their 17th annual convention, Saturday, October 25, in the Fort Pitt Hotel, Pittsburgh.

At 6 p. m., there will be a memorial service, followed by a banquet at 7 o'clock, with an entertainment at 9 o'clock.

All animals excepting man, monkeys, and perhaps the three-toed sloth, either swim naturally or go through the motions of swimming when suddenly immersed in water. There are several animals however, that, although they swim naturally, drown as they swim. This is true of rabbits, mice, moles, and the smaller cats, and is the result of their fur becoming saturated.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE--ANCIENT HISTORY

British War Relief Society Renews Activity

Increased Production Is Being Staged By Different Local Units

Increase in activity of the various committees in the Lawrence County Unit, British War Relief Society is evidenced by the reviewed effort of the volunteer workers in all phases. Most prominent at this time is the work being engaged upon by the ladies of the organization in both the knitting and sewing groups.

Additional local groups have been formed, with their own individual committees appointed and co-operating with the Lawrence County Unit. From this unit all supplies of material are available and distributed free of charge to any of the affiliated groups.

The Ladies' Sewing club of Neshannock Post V.F.W. has recently organized with Mrs. George E. Hunt and Mrs. Earl Cummins as chair-ladies of the sewing and knitting. Each Monday from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. in the V.F.W. Post rooms on Washington street this group is actively engaged upon the sewing of children's garments and knitting sweaters, scarfs, helmets and mittens for Britain's fighting forces. Volunteer workers may attend these sessions and participate in the work for the British War Relief Society.

The Lawrence County Unit group on similar work meets each Wednesday evening in the Y. W. C. A. rooms at which time any person interested may attend and assist. The unit headquarters at room 307, Lawrence Savings and Trust Building is open each afternoon where information may be obtained concerning the work of the society in all its activities or by calling 672.

Good woolen used clothing is still required, also white uniforms for women workers overseas. Tin foil is also being collected and even felt hats in any condition have a salvage value which may be applied to British War Relief funds. Letters have been received from individuals and from military units overseas expressing their appreciation for the material that has been provided them by the Lawrence County Unit and the British War Relief Society for every piece of material that is sent through the unit has a permanent label sewn to the garment stating that it is being supplied by "Lawrence County Unit—British War Relief Society, New Castle, Pa." Similarly the garments provided by the Neshannock Post V.F.W. women workers will bear their label of identification for it is only by this means that those overseas may know what source the garments have been provided.

FROM ME TO YOU
By MESEALL

Many of you good people here in Lawrence County have responded generously to the appeal which appeared in this column last week . . . remember the British Children this Christmas . . . The Lawrence County Unit of the British War Relief Society reports that enough money has been sent in to make up about 60 packages for that many children . . . The idea was, you remember, to send a package to every child on the island, the packages to contain the following . . . one pound of Christmas Candy, dolls for girls, games for boys and other toys. The ship that will carry these parcels across has been christened "Happiness" and it sails from New York on November 1st . . . Now each one of these packages cost one dollar and if you are interested in sending some won't you please fill out the coupon that is found below and mail at once.

Lawrence County Unit
307 Lawrence Savings & Trust Bldg.
New Castle, Pa.

Yes, I do want to help fill the Christmas Gift Ship for the poor children of Britain made homeless by the war. Here's my check for $. . . for . . . Christmas packages at $1 apiece.

Address

The following poem has been requested . . . for the use of students:

IF
If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
If you can doubt yourself, but never doubt your duty;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;
If you can dream and not make dreams your master;
If you can think and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;
If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch and toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except the Will which says to them: "Hold On!"
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings nor lose the common touch;
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforlorning minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

IF YOU NEED $100 HERE'S WHAT TO DO

How to borrow cash quickly and simply and repay in monthly installments which fit your own income

CAN YOU make good use of $100?
Investigate our loan plans today. Household Finance offers three simple ways for you to borrow up to $300. Your loan will be made the way which best suits your own situation.

1. Signature loans. No security needed. These loans are made, under proper conditions, to both single persons and married couples.
2. Auto loans. A loan on your car may best fit your needs.
3. Furniture loans. Here character and regular income are far more important than the value of your security. Many borrowers use this plan.

No endorsers needed
Whichever way you borrow, it is not necessary to ask friends or fellow-workers to act as endorsers. And at no time do we question friends or relatives about your money affairs. You get the loan you need simply, privately and speedily.

You may repay your loan in convenient monthly installments as shown in the table. Monthly installments of $9.75 each, for instance, will repay a $100 loan in full. Or as little as $6.97 a month for eighteen months will also repay $100.

Borrow for less

Payments in the table include charges at Household's rate of 2 1/2% per month on that part of a balance not exceeding $100, and 2% per month on that part of a balance in excess of $100. The Small Loan Law permits us to charge substantially more than this. Some finance companies do charge a higher rate. It's good business to compare rates before you borrow.

If you need money, here's what to do. Come to Household. Or just phone and say you need a loan. We're here to serve you. Phone or visit us today without obligation.

Million Sweaters For Men In Service Aim

By JANE COCHRAN
International News Service Staff
Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—A million sweaters rolling off the production end of American women's knitting needles by Christmas—that's the goal today of the citizens committee for the army and navy.

With the assistance of a list of nationally known personalities, including Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt who will be officially designated as the "first knitter of the land," a national drive is being launched to "start all America clicking."

The sweaters will go to America's service men—gifts from the American women. The organization sponsoring the drive has been officially designated by the United States War and Navy departments to provide recreation, entertainment and comforts for the American service men inside the camps and they were requested to sponsor the national knitting drive.

"We want all these sweaters to be hand-knit," Mrs. George Blumenthal, chairman of the national knitting drive, said. "We want the soldiers to understand that those not in army camps want to do something for those who are."

Mrs. Blumenthal, widow of the late head of the Metropolitan museum, is national chairman of the drive, but the knitting campaign will be carried on by each of the committee's 12 regional councils, which correspond roughly with the U. S. Army corps areas.

A large-scale "knit for defense" tea, sponsored by the second region council and to be held in New York City on Sept. 30, will mark the opening of the drive. Mrs. Julius S. Morgan, vice chairman of the second region council, is the head of the list of hostesses which includes socially and nationally prominent figures.

The American soldier will get the breaks with his sweater, for there's a standard pattern and the directions are easy to follow. It will be a V-necked sleeveless style in regulation khaki yarn, designed to be worn under the modern V-necked army uniform coat.

Women will be asked by the committee to buy their yarn at local stores and official knitting instructions will be given them there. Woolen manufacturers are cooperating to give the patriotic knitters excellent values in these yarns.

JURORS EXCUSED

Jurors who were called for duty next week have been excused from service, the criminal court having finished Thursday morning of this week.

QUAIL ON LAWN

Sheriff M. M. Ingham was strangely tempted Friday afternoon on the court house lawn. Six quail settled on the lawn in view of the sheriff, and his trigger finger itched for a gun and a season.

WAITED FOR BANDITS

Sheriff Ingham, who is a sharpshooter, nearly had a chance to take a pop at the Harrisville bank bandits Friday afternoon. When the call came into his office that they were headed this way, he reasoned, and logically so, that the bandits would try to get into Ohio by the Petersburg road.

The sheriff stationed himself along the highway, but the boys had tangled with Chief Ernest Hartman of Ellwood City earlier. Tangled with Hartman is like trying to stop a buzz saw with your bare hands.

Women Of Moose Plan Chapter Night

Special Program Will Be Presented On Tuesday Evening, Sept. 23

Publicity chairman, co-worker H. Margaret Davies of the Women of the Moose, Chapter No. 8, will have her Chapter Night program next Tuesday evening, September 23rd at 8 p. m. An interesting program has been planned. The Women of the Moose have learned through their international activities that Publicity is a vital, interesting subject. Through the recommendations for Publicity work established in 1927 by their Grand Chancellor, Miss Katherine Smith of Washington, D. C., the Women of the Moose have come to recognize publicity as one of the most fascinating activities in their development program. Members without any previous experience in this work accept the chairmanship of Publicity for their Chapter, later express their appreciation for the opportunity of handling such interesting work. Because the Women of the Moose bases its program on the object of serving the needs of homes and communities everywhere, they endeavor to make the Mooseheart Standards available to every person in the community.

The individual Chapter member makes a valuable contribution to her Chapter's Publicity program every time she helps to bring about some constructive activity of civic interest, which will make news for her local paper.

Mooseheart—the world's most famous "Child City"—represents the aim of scientific care and training of the normal child. This "City of Childhood," located thirty-seven miles west of Chicago, Illinois, provides for every need of the normal, growing child in substitution of its natural home. Mooseheart—founded and built in 1913 by U. S. Senator, Honorable James J. Davis for dependent children of deceased members of the Loyal Order of Moose, has given to the world practical proof that its program for the care and training of the child is the answer to preventive and proper for trial for bank robbery, he can still be tried here. The robbery of the Rohrer gun shop is just as serious a crime as the robbery of a bank. He could get from 7 1/2 to 15 years for that. In addition, he could be tried for felonious shooting, which carries a penalty of from five to 10 years.

Even if Palmer is taken to Butler for trial for bank robbery, he can still be tried here. The robbery of the Rohrer gun shop is just as serious a crime as the robbery of a bank. He could get from 7 1/2 to 15 years for that. In addition, he could be tried for felonious shooting, which carries a penalty of from five to 10 years.

As a correlative to its administrative program, Mooseheart has its own scientific Laboratory for Child Research under the supervision of a leading psychologist. It boasts further of a modern, fully-equipped hospital, a scientific Foods Laboratory, its own farm, cannery, bank, post office, stores, indoor swimming pool, and every other requisite of complete home and community life.

The Women of the Moose program of Chapter Development, in addition to Publicity, includes Adult Education in nine other major subjects of interest to women everywhere. All members are cordially invited to attend the Publicity program being sponsored by the local Publicity Committee, as it promises to be of interest and benefit to all who attend.

If politicians are able to reason, why does a deluge of letters impress them when they know it is made to order by one little group?
